Newsletter – 29.11.2021

This Week

This week the children are learning about people who help us. They enjoyed the Police visit last week. We have a firefighter visiting nursery on Friday.

The children have enjoyed playing and exploring in the snow for a little while today.

Some of the activities this week include: making a people who help us book, watching a video clip about firefighters, learning how to play hopscotch, using playdough to make different shapes and cooking pasta – discussing the difference between cooked and uncooked pasta.

Pram Store Reminder

The pram store is located next to the entrance for the Sunflower Room (3-4 years). Please use the pram store if you are leaving your child's pram at nursery. Prams should not be stored in the main entrance.

Following on from feedback given on our parent questionnaire - please do not take prams down the path leading to the Rainbow Room (2 year olds). Thank you for your cooperation.

Nursery Photos

Reminder - tomorrow is the deadline for online orders to be delivered to nursery. Please complete the order or there will be additional costs for the photos to be delivered to your home address.

Clothing

Please ensure that your child has a warm, waterproof coat, hat, scarf and gloves in nursery. Please label all items.

Home Challenge

This week's home challenge:

Sunflower Room: practise fastening your coat.

Rainbow Room: practise putting your coat and shoes on.

Please practise this at home and add photos to Tapestry. Your child's key person will share the photographs with their group.

Thank you for your continued support.
